MANHATTAN BOROUGH PRESIDENT READS TO INWOOD CHILDREN

Event: Manhattan Borough President Virginia Fields reads to Inwood neighborhood children as part of local literacy enrichment program supported by Literacy, Inc. and the YM/WHA

What: LINC is a not-for-profit organization that links community resources to enrich literacy among young children 8 years of age and younger. LINC's mission is simple: to provide a system of outreach and coordination that builds language-rich neighborhoods where all young children are supported as readers. LINC has collaborated with the YWHA and McDonald's to provide a reading program that provides reading facilitators, books and spaces for young children to read and be read to by community volunteers, parents and older children.

Who: Manhattan Borough President Virginia Fields

When: Tuesday, March 18th – 4 PM to 6 PM
Virginia Fields will read at 4:30 PM

Where: Reading Corner at McDonald's Restaurant
Dyckman Street and Broadway (Take A Train to 200 Dyckman Station)
Inwood Section of Manhattan
